Internet 101: Follow Me To The Money Tree!

(Copyright)2002 by Dave Turner

If you don't have a clue about how to make money online and you want to learn, my advice to you is, "Follow Me To The Money Tree!"

Why follow me? Because my website is among the tiny five percent of website's that's making money. The other ninety-five percent are lucky if they can pay their web hosting bill. I'm not saying that to brag or to be cruel. However, according to the companies that research those kinds of things, it's a cold, hard fact. Want proof?

Go to TrafficRanking.com and type in HomeBasedBusiness123.com, and you'll see that my website is ranked among the most successful home based business website's on the entire Internet!

So I can definitely show you how to make money online. Just go to my website and study what I do. Notice I use the word "study," not "copy." You NEVER want to blatantly "copy" or "steal" someone else's words or ideas.

When you arrive at my website, you'll notice that it's simple, but attractive and super-easy to navigate. And I'll put my copywriting skills up against anyone's. You'll also notice that I back up every claim I make with cold, hard indisputable facts. That's called credibility. And I have a whole truckload of it.

If you want to make money online, you definitely have to establish your credibility.

My credibility comes in the form of "genuine" testimonial letters from the many satisfied subscribers to my "Home Business Newsletter."

The fact that I'm also a published author also adds to my credibility. You can find my business articles in national newstand magazines like "Opportunity World" and "Money N' Profits."

You can also find my business articles on dozens of successful website's all over the Internet. Just go to Google.com, Yahoo.com, AOL.com, MSN.com, or any other major search engine, and type in

"Dave Turner Internet 101". Type it exactly the way you see it here.

So what does all of this prove? Three things:

1. It proves that I'm a successful home based business owner
2. It proves that I'm legitimate
3. It proves that I know what I'm doing

If you're serious about making money online, "Follow Me To The Money Tree!"

Til' next time...
