Internet 101: Hitch Your Wagon to a Star for Internet Success!
(c)2001 by Dave Turner

It never ceases to amaze me how many otherwise intelligent people setup a website, without any type of plan or clue about how to promote it. Fact is, nowadays, anyone can get a website. But once you get one, then what? How are you going to direct people to it? The simplest and smartest way I know is to "hitch your wagon to a star." What do I mean by that? Let me explain.

In every industry, there are star performers. Super successful people who stand head and shoulders above everyone else in their field. The same is true of Internet marketing. So, who are the stars of the Internet? They are Neil Shearing, Kevin Nunley and Ken Evoy, just to name a few.

If you truly want to be successful on the Internet, the absolute best advice I could give you is buy their products, subscribe to their free newsletters, carefully study what they do and apply their successful techniques to your online business every single day.

These professionals are masters at marketing. They also sell a ton of products. They get great pleasure in sharing their incredible knowledge. They have the answers to every single one of your questions. All you have to do is ask them. Take advantage of this fact and let them teach you. Learn everything you can from them. Everything!

That's what I mean by "hitch your wagon to a star"... an Internet marketing star!
