Marketing From The Inside Out
by John Colanzi

The "Magic Bullet" seems to be what so many marketers are looking for. They want a secret technique or method to guarantee their success.

I'll let you in on a secret. They're looking in the wrong direction.

True success and prosperity start on the inside. It comes from within yourself, not from some magical technique or method.

There are no sure fire tools. There is no guaranteed money making program. There is only your patience, persistence and most of all your mind set.

Lasting success begins in your head and radiates from your inner core.

Once you've developed an attitude of abundance, no one can take it from you.

You'll see opportunity at every turn. You'll realize that setbacks are really lessons to be learned on the road to freedom.

Once you know with all your being that you can succeed, you'll realize that your success depends on you.

There are no gurus to blame.

There are no programs to blame.

There are no methods to blame.

The buck stops with you.

You are the master of your fate.

You determine what works for you.

Don't give away that power.

Learn everything you can about your business and how to promote it, but make the final decision on how to succeed yours.

Realize that every step you make along the road to financial freedom is profitable either in terms of money earned or experience learned.

If you take two steps forward and one step back, you're still further along than if you did nothing.

Get your head right and success will come.

Stop looking outside yourself for success. Start marketing from the inside out.

Wishing You Success,
John Colanzi
