Everyone would like to have happy life. There are many ways to get that point. For some people it's pretty easy to achieve while for the others – extremely difficult or even impossible. Listen to my story and... I hope it will encourage you to take some reasonable action to enjoy everything from now on.

I was 24 years old, I lived in Poland, finished studies and already had good, well paid and prospective job at one international company. I was living on my own, meeting friends, developing my knowledge – all was nice and easy.

Finally I found the person that I have fallen in love with. It sounds fine, doesn't it? but... At that moment my life started to complicate. There was one serious problem – the person I wanted to share the rest of my life with was living 1.5 thousands km away, in another country, different culture. One of us had to leave his past and follow the other. We both decided it would be me (many reasons – not worth to mention now). People around said I was extremely stupid to do that step. I was always very reasonable person, stepping strong on the earth so my decision appeared unbelievable.

I did it against logic, against everybody. You want probably know why? Because I didn't want to give up my love, because I wanted to take what "I" want from life, not what life brings to me, because in fact I missed freedom in my life and finally, because I knew that if I give up, I will always regret and hate my cowardice.

So I have devoted everything and started to build from the very beginning in a different, totally crazy country, without family and any friends. Sometimes I was lost and desperate. Believe me, it was very difficult experience and costs me many compromises but I didn't dare to give up!

After many tests I have managed to fix many things expect very important one – work which could give me both independence and freedom. Freedom to create something that I can be proud of and satisfied, Freedom to visit my parents more often, Freedom to grow up my children on my own and pass to them what the life is like...

However I was sure one thing – no more compromise! I sacrificed enough!

I didn't sleep many nights, I got headache from the brainstorm but I found the solution. And this possibility I want to pass to you. I don't promise to you that in one day you become a millionaire but I can promise a prospective, long term business with freedom and independence together. And it is up to "You" only how well you will go. It's up to "Your" enthusiasm, "Your" strong willing, and "Your" hard work. Isn't it fair offer?

Your profits will depend on your hard work, but don't you think it is worth?

"YOU" DECIDE... SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.
