If you are like me, you have traditionally had problems with getting the attention of the surfing public. No matter how much you try, people just seem to be looking everywhere else besides your website. Well, here are three tools that will multiply your website traffic in a hurry.

EXITBLAZE

The first tool is perfect for any website and will create a popup on exit displaying a webpage of someone else who has joined the program. The advantage is that your page will be cued to be shown on other websites with a similar theme. That way you have a good chance of having someone interested in what you have to show. The signup process is simple and a small piece of html code is automatically generated to be placed on your website. You can add it to as many webpages as you like to increase the number of times your website will be seen elsewhere. You can have any page on your website shown to others as their entry page.

Bob Bly, author of "Complete Idiots Guide to Direct Marketing" calls it:
"The hands-down best way to get traffic to your site ever created. Period."

What is it?

FREE LEAD GENERATION

The next 2 tools are designed to flood your newsletter subscription in box. I have easily tripled the number of subscribers since using these 2 programs.

The first one is very unique because you actually get more exposure than you produce! This program shows a newsletter signup form or a pop up on your website. There are paid ads for 2 newsletters and 5 or 6 others. Each time you show this on your website, you get FOUR credits! So, for each view on your site, you get 4 views of your advertisement on websites with similar themes. These are highly targeted opt ins.

SUBSCRIPTION ROCKET

The final program is similar to the last one, but it will only show up as a pop up. You will be able to place a small advertisement that will be automatically added to a pop up shown on your site and other targeted websites. Between this program and the last one, you will soon have more subscribers than you ever imagined.
