7 Simple Ways to Get Your Articles Published by Tracie Johansen

1. Submit them to other eZine publishers. Go to <http://dmoz.org> and search for ezines. This will give you a list of several ezine directories. Now look for ezines in your target area and find out if they accept article submissions.

2. Put a list of all your articles on your site with an autoresponder address for each one so your web site visitors can get them immediately.

You can get free autoresponders at:
<http://www.GetResponse.com/?31858>

3. Make an eBook with all your articles. Be sure to list an autoresponder address for each one. This way if anyone wants to use your article in their ezine or web site they can get it already formatted and ready to copy and paste. Now just give away your eBook to all your web site visitors and watch your articles spread like wild fire.

You can get a free trial copy of Activ E-book Compiler which will make eBooks up to 10 pages for free. Get it Now!

4. Offer them to other sites in your niche market for free content on their sites.

5. Do an article exchange with other web site owners. Simply ask other site owners to list one of your articles on their web site for each article of theirs you list on your web site.

6. Submit your articles to article submit sites. Here's a list to get you started.
