Jo Rowling, was a 32-year old mom on welfare, who wrote an hour a day when her daughter napped. Today, she is the well-known, JK Rowling, author of the Harry Potter books. Her business opportunity is writing, 5 books in 5 years, 2 of the books were made into films, and her reported net worth is about $500 million.

She says "I didn't know I'd be successful one day, but I knew if I at least tried, I'd have a chance. I don't believe I'm more talented than anyone else, I'm just bloody persistent, and work at it, every bloody day."

Bradley Alexander, found his business opportunity as a ticket broker six months ago, says "I absolutely love working at home, I can't even remember my annoying supervisor's name any longer, I've more profitable things to concentrate now on." Instead of supplying tickets to all events, Brad has found the niche market of supplying tickets to rock concerts in several nearby cities during the same tour plus offering transportation.
